

We place high value on obtaining our DSL internet service through our internet service provider Sonic.net. The support offered by Sonic is superb, which is very important to a small business such as Werth Engineering & Marine. We urge the FCC to continue regulating the prices charged by the large phone companies for broadband service to internet service providers.